The following questions are aimed at understanding how people think about social problems. Different people often have different opinions about questions of right and wrong. There are no "right" answers in the way that there are right answers to mathematics problems.

In these questions you will be asked to give your opinion about several stories.

Example story:

Frank Jones has been thinking about having a car. He is married and has two small children.

Story number 1:

A woman was near death from a special kind of cancer. There was one drug that the doctors

A man had been sentenced to prison for ten years. After one year, however, he escaped from prison, moved to a new area of the country, and took on the name of Thompson. For eight years he worked hard, and gradually he saved enough money to buy his own business. He was fair to his customers, gave his employees top wages, and gave most of his own profits to charity. Then one day, Mrs Jones, an old neighbour, recognised him as the man who had escaped from prison eight years before, and whom the police had been looking for.

Should Mrs Jones report Mr Thompson to the police and have him sent back to the prison?

Should not report him _____

1. Hasn't Mr Thompson been good enough for such a long time?

Story number 3:

A lady was dying of cancer which could not be cured and she had only about six months to live. She was in terrible pain, but she was so weak that a large dose of a pain-killer like morphine would make her die sooner. She was delirious and almost crazy with pain, and in her delirium she would ask the doctor to give her enough morphine to kill her. She said she

He should give the lady an overdose that will make her die

Story number 4:

Mr Webster was the owner and manager of a garage. He wanted to employ another mechanic to help him, but good mechanics were hard to find. The only person he found who seemed to be a good mechanic was Miss Lee. While Mr Webster himself didn't have anything against women mechanics, he was afraid to employ Miss Lee because many of his customers wouldn't like a woman mechanic. His customers might take their business elsewhere if Miss Lee was working in the garage.

When Miss Lee asked Mr Webster if she could have the job, Mr Webster said that he had already employed somebody else. But Mr Webster really had not found anybody else who was a good mechanic besides Miss Lee.

could not find anybody who was a good mechanic besides Miss Lee

What should Mr Webster have done? (Choose one option)

- Should have employed Miss Lee _____
- Can't decide _____
- Should not have employed her _____
